Dear Mr. Coleman,

The success of the Military Traffic Management Command's Sixth Annual Wellness Fair is creditable to the efforts of organizations such as yours which contributed time and energy to supply personnel, exhibits, and printed materials for our work force.

Your technical expertise in the areas of anatomy and physiology proved to be a beneficial element in the day's activities. We received many positive comments about your pleasant manner and calm demeanor in a hectic atmosphere.

Thank you for an excellent job. The time you donated to the Fair was greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Richard V. Lowe
